We've loved
having you join us this year!

Ice Breaker

When David has any spare time he likes cooking, eating, reading and working out whether it's too soon to have another Chinese takeaway, Claire loves to spend her free time with her family and Kesia recently has started to enjoy running and painting. What do you like to do in your spare time?

Peter escapes prison

Acts 12: 1 – 17

So is today the day? Will Kesia, David and Claire escape? How will they manage it? If you were writing the script what would happen? How would they escape? Would it be dramatic? Today's bible story included a very dramatic and exciting escape. Peter was in prison because he was a Christian. The church were praying hard that he would be released. Peter was chained up and there were even soldiers sleeping next to him to make sure he didn't escape. But this didn't stop God! He heard the prayers of the church and sent an angel to rescue Peter. Can you imagine being rescued by an angel? It says in the bible that Peter thought he was dreaming. He thought that he would wake up and be back in prison. I wonder how long it took him to realise it was actually real. The best bit of this story is that the church didn't believe it either! They were all praying hard for Peter to be released and when he turned up on the doorstep they didn't believe it! When Peter finally came inside they heard about his exciting escape and the angel. And they all praised God for rescuing Peter and helping him escape. They had learned that God answered prayer. What have you learned about God this week through the Escape Room Holiday Club? On Monday we learned that God cares for us; on Tuesday that we should stand up for what's right and on Wednesday that it's good to follow God because he has good plans for our lives. The. On Thursday we heard about Jesus dying on the cross for us and the story of Saul and David and all about forgiveness. But God might have wanted to say something specially to each one of us? What stood out most to you? You can always talk to God through prayer and you can pray to him just like the church did for Peter. We hope you have enjoyed this week and we would love to see you at Xtreme when RBC reopens.
